

Sponsor a Child

Thanks to the Shallowater Student Council's Backpack Buddy Program, 60 students are being fed on weekends.

The Backpack Buddy program targets Elementary, Intermediate and Middle school children who are fed primarily in the school lunchroom Monday through Friday, but who go hungry on the weekends at home.

Each week, Student Council and volunteers stuff backpacks of food to be distributed to the Elementary, Intermediate and Middle school. The children identified as being potentially at high risk from being in food insecure homes will receive these backpacks on Friday afternoon for the weekend.

For a one time donation of $85, you can sponsor a child's backpack snacks for the rest of the school year.

Please consider sponsoring a Backpack Buddy Child for the remaining school year. Your donation could be the difference in a child going to bed hungry.
